

The 2009 Annual Conference
SOUTHPAC OFFSHORE PLANNING INSTITUTE

Find out why the Southpac Offshore Planning Institute is regarded by lawyers as the preeminent conference on offshore planning and one of the finest CLE conferences in the nation.

Encore at the Wynn Las Vegas
October 1 & 2, 2009

- ∴ We are pleased to be joined again this year by Edward D. Brown of Engel & Reiman pc, member of the Board of Advisors to the Southpac Offshore Planning Institute.

2009 is proving to be the busiest year ever for attorneys in the asset protection and offshore planning industry. Whether you are new to this exciting and growing practice area, or looking to sharpen your skills with some of the nation's leading practitioners, the Southpac Institute is widely regarded as the best continuing education conference on asset protection and offshore planning.

Topics to be addressed include foreign asset protection trusts, Nevada trusts, life insurance and annuities for high net worth clients, and innovative financing techniques for wealth preservation. This event is designed for both experienced practitioners as well as attorneys eager to learn about this fast-growing practice area.

For more details and to register, please visit www.southpacinstitute.com/registration.html
Registration: $249 ($199 for Nevada State Bar members)
Conference Reception & Dinner: $100
For hotel reservations, please visit www.wynnlasvegas.com.

